When such leave is refused, other time will be made available to ensure the union business is transacted.

2.6 Bulletin Boards

2.8 Unpaid Leave - Union Business

- (a) Leave of absence without pay and without loss of seniority shall be granted with 14 days written notice for the purposes listed below. Such leave shall be subject to operational requirements and shall not be unreasonably withheld:

This provision does not apply to employees who are hired by the Union for a period greater than six months.

(b) To facilitate the administration of Section (a) when leave without pay is granted, the leave shall be given with basic pay and the Union shall reimburse the Employer for appropriate compensation costs, including travel time, incurred. It is understood that employees granted leave of absence pursuant to this clause shall receive their current rates of pay while on leave of absence.

The Union agrees to reimburse the Employer within one month of receipt of billing from the Employer.

(c) The Employer shall grant, on request, leave of absence without pay:

The Employer agrees to provide to the Union twice a year, within the first week of the months of January and July, a list of all union members, their current job categories, employee status, and addresses known to the Employer.

As an alternative to providing a written list, and provided that the Union's computer system is compatible with the Employer's computer system, the above-noted lists may be supplied to the Union on a computer tape/disk or by modem. Where the information is not supplied through the foregoing method, the Employer shall supply the requested information on hard copy.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

Employees hired after the date of certification are required to become members of the Union as a condition of employment.

(b) Nothing in this agreement shall be construed as requiring a person who was an employee prior to the certification date to become a member of the Union.

ARTICLE 4 - CHECK-OFF OF UNION DUES

(a) The Employer shall, as a condition of employment, deduct from the regular wages or salary of each employee in the bargaining unit, whether or not the employee is a member of the Union, the amount of the regular monthly dues payable to the Union by a member of the Union, provided there are sufficient wages owing to the employee in the particular pay period to cover the deductions. The employee shall, as a condition of continued employment, complete an authorization form as provided by the Union for this purpose. The Employer shall deduct from any employee who is a member of the Union any general assessments levied in accordance with the Union's Constitution and Bylaws.

All deductions shall be made in each payroll period, and membership dues or payments in lieu thereof shall be considered as owing in the month for which they are so deducted.

(b) All deductions shall be remitted to the President of the Union not later than 28 days following the end of the month in which the deduction was made and the Employer shall also provide a list of names of those employees from whose salaries such deductions have been made together with the amounts deducted from each employee.

As an alternative to providing a written list, and provided that the Union's computer system is compatible with the Employer's computer system, the above-noted lists may be supplied to the Union on a computer tape/disk or by modem. Where the information is not supplied through the foregoing method, the Employer shall supply the requested information on hard copy.

(c) Before the Employer is obliged to deduct any amount under (a) above, the Union must advise the Employer in writing of the amount of its regular dues.

The amount so advised shall continue to be the amount to be deducted until changed by further written notice to the Employer signed by the President of the Union. Upon receipt of such notice, such changed amount shall be the amount deducted, provided that the changed deduction can be reasonably accommodated by the Employer's payroll system.

The Union will give reasonable notice to the Employer of any change in union dues, assessment, fees, or other amounts which the Employer is required to deduct. All changes shall coincide with the beginning of the Employer's pay period.

(d) From the date of the signing of this agreement and for its duration, no employee organization other than the Union shall be permitted to have membership dues or other monies deducted by the Employer from the pay of the employees in the bargaining unit, except by mutual agreement of the parties to this agreement.

(e) At the same time that Income Tax (T4) slips are made available, the Employer, without charge, shall indicate on the T4 slip the total amount of union dues paid by the employee for the previous year (the year for which the T4 slip is provided). Every reasonable effort shall be made for these to be available to the employee at the earliest possible date, or not later than March 1st of the succeeding year.

ARTICLE 5 - EMPLOYER & UNION SHALL ACQUAINT NEW EMPLOYEES

The Employer agrees to acquaint new employees with the fact that a collective agreement is in effect and with the conditions of employment set out in the articles dealing with Union Security and Dues Check off. A new employee shall be advised of the name and location of his/her steward. Whenever the steward is employed in the same work area as the new employee, the employee's immediate supervisor will introduce him/her to the steward, who will provide the employee with a copy of the collective agreement. The Employer agrees that a union steward will be given an opportunity to meet each new employee within regular working hours, without loss of pay, for 15 minutes some time during the first 30 days of employment.

ARTICLE 6 - EMPLOYER'S RIGHTS

(a) The Union agrees that the management, operation, and direction of its working forces, including the scheduling of employees, is vested solely with the Employer unless the agreement otherwise specifies. All rights and functions of the Employer shall be retained unless modified by the collective agreement.

- (b) The Employer may conduct its business in all respects in accordance with its commitments and responsibilities, including the right to maintain and improve order, discipline, and efficiency.
- (c) The Employer may make, alter from time to time, and enforce reasonable rules of conduct and procedure to be observed by the employees, except that such rules of conduct may not be in breach of this agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - EMPLOYER/UNION RELATIONS

7.1 Representation

No person shall undertake to represent the Union or the Employer without the proper authorization of the respective party. To facilitate this, the Union shall supply the Employer with the names of its Officers, and similarly, the Employer shall supply the Union with the names of the General Manager or designate with whom the Union may be required to transact business.

7.2 Union Bargaining Committee

A union bargaining committee shall be elected and consist of a maximum of three representatives of the bargaining unit.

- (e) The Arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two weeks of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.

ADDENDUM
Group Life & Long-Term Disability Insurance Plans

Part A - Group Life Insurance Plan

Section 1 - Eligibility

Regular full-time and regular part-time employees who are on staff on the effective date of the Plan or who join the staff following that date shall, on the first day of the calendar month immediately following the completion of the probationary period, become members of the Group Life Insurance Plan as a condition of employment.

Section 2 - Benefits

The Plan shall provide basic life insurance in the amount of $50,000 and standard 24 hour accidental death and dismemberment insurance. Coverage shall continue until termination of employment. On termination of employment (including retirement), coverage shall continue without premium payment for a period of 31 days, during which time the conversion privilege may be exercised; that is, the individual covered may convert all or part of his/her Group Life Insurance to any whole life, endowment, or term life policy normally issued by the insurer and at the insurer's standard rates at the time, without medical evidence.

Section 3 - Premiums

The cost of the Plan shall be borne by the Employer.

Part B – Long-Term Disability Plan

Section 1 - Eligibility

(a) Regular full-time and regular part-time employees who are on staff at the date of the signing of the agreement and who are not presently disabled from working or who join the staff following that date shall, on the first day of the calendar month immediately following the completion of the probationary period, become members of the Long-Term Disability Plan as a condition of employment.

(b) Seniority accumulation and benefit entitlement for employees on long-term disability shall be consistent with the provisions of Clauses 20.4(c) and 20.5 of the collective agreement.

Employees on long-term disability shall have their group life insurance premiums waived, and coverage under the Group Term Life Insurance Plan shall be continued for an amount not to exceed the amount of life insurance for the employee on the last day he/she was actively at work.

Section 2 - Waiting Period and Benefits

In the event an employee, while enrolled in this Plan, becomes totally disabled as a result of an accident or an illness then, after the employee has been totally disabled for four months, the employee shall receive a benefit equal to two-thirds of monthly earnings, to a maximum of $2,000 per month, in accordance with the Plan which shall be filed with the Union.

For the purposes of the above, earnings shall mean basic monthly earnings as at the date of disability. Basic monthly earnings for regular part-time employees shall be calculated on the basis of the employee's average monthly hours of work for the 12 month period or such shorter period that the employee has been employed, prior to the date of disability, multiplied by his/her hourly pay rate as at the date of disability.

The long-term disability benefit payment shall be made so long as an employee remains totally disabled and shall cease on the date the employee reaches age 65, recovers, or dies, whichever occurs first, or as of the date of failure to provide requested written proof, satisfactory to the Company, of his/her continuous total disability.

Section 3 - Total Disability Defined

(a) Total disability, as used in this Plan, means during the first 24 months of a benefit payment period, the employee's complete inability, as a result of bodily sickness or injury, to engage in his/her normal occupation, and after the first 24 months of a benefit payment period, the employee's complete inability, as a result of bodily sickness or injury, to engage in any occupation or employment for wages, compensation or profit, for which he/she is reasonably qualified by education, training, or experience, or may reasonably become so qualified, subject always to the terms of the provisions Limitations and Exclusions.

(b) Total disabilities resulting from mental or nervous disorders are covered by the Plan in the same manner as total disabilities resulting from accidents or other sicknesses, except that an employee who is totally disabled as a result of a mental or nervous disorder and who has received 24 months of Long-Term Disability Plan benefit payments must be confined to a hospital or mental institution or, where they are at home, under the direct care and supervision of a psychiatrist, in order to continue to be eligible for benefit payments.

(c) During a period of total disability, an employee must be under the regular and personal care of a legally qualified doctor of medicine.

(d) After 24 months of disability, an employee who is able by reason of education, training, or experience, to perform the duties of any gainful occupation, shall no longer be considered totally disabled and, therefore, shall not continue to be eligible for benefits under this Long-Term Disability Plan.

(e) Any employee who is receiving benefits under this Plan and who, in the opinion of a legally qualified doctor of medicine, has the potential for rehabilitation shall make every effort to participate in a rehabilitation program. An employee who fails to do so shall become ineligible for continued benefits under this Plan.

If an employee who is receiving this Long-Term Salary Continuance Benefit enters into a rehabilitation program, benefits may, at the discretion of the Company, be continued for up to 24 months. However, the monthly benefit payable to the employee during the rehabilitation program will be the amount of benefit calculated in accordance with the terms of this policy less 25% of the total amount of any wages, compensation, or profit earned by the employee during the rehabilitation program. In the event that income from rehabilitative employment and the benefit paid under this Plan shall exceed 80% of the employee's earnings at date of disability, the benefit from this Plan shall be further reduced by the excess amount.

"Rehabilitative employment" shall mean any occupation or employment for wage or profit, or any course or training that entitles the disabled employee to an allowance, provided such rehabilitative employment has the approval of a legally qualified doctor of medicine and the underwriter of the Plan.

The rehabilitative employment of a disabled employee shall continue until such time as the employee's earnings from rehabilitative employment exceed 80% of the employee's earnings at the date of disability, but in no event for more than 24 months from the date rehabilitative employment commences.

If the earnings are received by an employee during a period of total disability and, if such earnings are derived from employment which has not been approved as rehabilitative employment, then the regular monthly benefit from the Plan shall be reduced by 100% of such earnings.

Section 4 - Exclusions and Limitations

(a) Exclusions

No benefit shall be payable, in accordance with the terms of this policy, for any disability which is caused by or results from:

- (1) intentionally self-inflicted bodily injury or sickness, while sane or insane;
- (2) rebellion or insurrection, war, whether war has been declared or not, or by full or part-time service in any Armed Forces;

(3) flying or air travel, except when flying or travelling as a passenger in an aircraft for which a certificate of airworthiness has been issued by the appropriate government authority and which is operated by a properly licensed pilot;

(4) a condition for which an employee had received medical treatment, diagnosis, or taken prescription drugs within three months of the effective date of coverage under the Plan, and a claim related to that condition is made within 12 months of coverage;

Subject to the agreement of the Employer's insurance carrier, Item No. 4 does not apply to persons employed as regular employees prior to January 1, 1990.

(5) a disability due to the use of drugs or alcohol, except where the employee is under active supervision and is receiving continuous treatment for that disability from a rehabilitative centre or an institution provincially designated for that treatment; and

(6) any sickness or injury to which the contributing cause was the commission or attempted commission by the employee of a criminal offence.

(b) Limitations

(1) An employee, physically able to engage in an occupation or employment, shall not be deemed to be totally disabled if he is prevented from engaging in that occupation or employment by any disqualification of law, licensing, or employment practice, even though such disqualification may arise from or be related to bodily injury or sickness for which he has received benefits provided by this policy.

(2) In no event shall absence outside the territorial limits of Canada or the United States in North America be considered as part of the disability period unless approved by the Company in writing prior to the beginning of such absence.

Section 5 - Integration with Other Disability Income

The amount of benefit payable to an employee shall be the amount for which he/she is insured on the date of commencement of his/her total disability, subject to any provision for the reduction or termination of insurance contained in this policy on such date.

However, if during a disability period, the employee is entitled to receive income from any of the following sources:

- (a) Workers Compensation Act, or similar law;
- (b) Department of Veterans' Affairs;
- (c) retirement or pension plan with any employer;
- (d) any disability provision or any group insurance policy;
- (e) any law providing disability or retirement benefits enacted by any government, including the Employee Benefit of Canada Pension Plan and the Quebec Pension Plan;
- (f) the Insurance Corporation of British Columbia (ICBC) or any other similar provincial auto insurance plan.

The amount of benefits shall be reduced by the amount of such income, excluding any portion the employee was receiving prior to commencement of disability, regardless of whether the employee has actually applied for and received such income.

However, no reduction in the amount of monthly benefit payable to the employee during the same period of disability will be made on account of increases in the amount of his income from the above sources if the increases are the direct result of application of a cost-of-living indexing formula to the amount of such income. No reduction will be made in this benefit by reason of the Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan Dependant Benefit.

Private or individual disability plan benefits of the disabled employee shall not reduce the benefit from this Plan.

Section 6 - Successive Disabilities

Successive disability period means a disability period which begins within 180 days after the termination of a prior disability period.

Until the employee has resumed his/her previous occupation on a full-time basis sufficiently recovered to prevent relapse, any period of total disability arising from the same cause or causes as a previous period of total disability will be considered a continuation of the previous period of total disability. In no event, however, will periods of total disability separated by 180 days or more of regular employment be considered as one period of total disability.

For each initial disability period, payment of benefits will commence following expiration of the qualification period of 180 days. For each successive disability period, payment of benefits will commence following expiration of:

- (a) the qualification period less the total number of days absent due to the same cause or causes during the last preceding initial disability period and all intervening successive disability periods, or
- (b) 30 days, whichever is greater.

Section 7 - Expiration of Sick Leave

Employees who have unused sick leave credits after the 180 day waiting period when the long-term disability benefit becomes payable shall either exhaust all such sick leave credits before receiving the long-term disability benefit, or bank the unused sick leave credits for future use.

Employees who will be eligible for benefits under the Long-Term Disability Plan, shall not have their employment terminated. Following expiration of their sick leave credits, they shall be placed on unpaid leave of absence until receipt of long-term disability benefits.

Upon return to work following recovery, an employee who was on long-term disability shall, where possible, return to his/her former job, exercising his/her seniority rights if necessary, pursuant to Clause 13(b) of the collective agreement.

Section 8 - Benefits Upon Plan Termination

In the event this Long-Term Disability Plan is terminated, the benefit payments shall continue to be paid, in accordance with the provision of this Plan, to disabled employees who became disabled while covered by this Plan prior to its termination.

Section 9 - Premiums

The cost of this Plan shall be borne by the Employer. Payment of premiums shall cease on termination of employment, or six months prior to an employee's 65th birthday, whichever occurs first.

Section 10 - Waiver of Premium

In the event an employee is receiving long-term salary continuance benefits provided by this policy, the premium for his/her insurance shall be waived for the period during which benefits are paid.

Section 11 - Claims

Written notice of a claim for long-term salary continuance benefits must be sent to the Company by the participating Employer on the form provided by the Company for that purpose, and received by the Company not later than 30 days after the expiration of the qualification period. Initial proof of total disability, obtained at the employee's expense, must be sent to the Company, on the form provided by the Company, for that purpose, and received by the Company not later than 30 days after the expiration of the qualification period. Further proof of total disability, when required by the Company, must be provided at the employee's expense.

Failure by the participating Employer to provide written notice of claim within the time limit specified above shall neither invalidate nor reduce any claim if it is shown that the employee had advised his Employer of intention to claim within the time limit specified above.

Failure by the employee to provide written proof of claim as required above shall not invalidate a claim if notice is given to the Company within the time limit specified above, showing that it was not reasonably possible to obtain such proof.

Section 12 - Administration

The Employer shall administer the Plan. Upon request, the Union shall be provided access to any reports relative to the long-term disability claims in the process of payments. All questions arising as to the interpretation of the Plan shall be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures of the collective agreement. In cases of discrepancy between this Addendum and the Master Policy, the Master Policy will prevail.

APPENDIX E
Short-Term Disability

A full-time or part-time employee is entitled to short-term disability in accordance with Clause 25.6 (Short-Term Disability) of the collective agreement. In order to receive the short-term disability benefit, an employee must apply for Employment Insurance (EI) sickness benefits and are subject to the eligibility and application process under the Employment Insurance Act and Regulations. Information can be found online at <https://www.canada.ca/en/services/benefits/ei/ei-sickness.html>

The following short-term disability provisions will be in effect as of the first pay period after April 1, 2017.

General Description of the Coverage

If you cannot work because of sickness, injury or quarantine, but you would otherwise be available to work, you could be eligible to receive up to a maximum of 15 weeks of EI sickness benefits. Once you are approved for EI sickness benefits, the Employer will top-up to a maximum of 95% of your regular wage as part of your short-term disability coverage under the collective agreement.

When Short-Term Disability Payments Begin

Once you are approved for EI sickness benefits, you should receive your first payment from EI within 28 days of the date your application and all required documents are received. Before you start receiving EI sickness benefits, there may be two weeks for which you will not be paid by EI. The waiting period for EI sickness benefits is covered by the Employer up to a maximum of 95% of regular weekly earnings. Once you start receiving EI sickness benefits, the Employer will top-up to your short-term disability entitlement in accordance with Clause 25.6 up to a maximum of 95% of regular weekly earnings.

If you are not entitled to receive EI benefits, Service Canada will contact you by letter or by telephone to explain why. If you disagree with the decision, you have the right to request a reconsideration. You should immediately contact your BCGEU Area Office or Local Chair for assistance with an EI appeal.

What Will be Paid

EI sickness benefits basic rate is at 55% of your average insurable weekly earnings, up to a maximum amount. Once your application has been approved, you will be advised of the weekly earnings that you are entitled to.

Clause 25.6 outlines the short-term disability benefit that members are entitled to. Once you are approved for EI sickness benefits, the Employer will top-up that amount to a maximum of 95% of regular weekly earnings for your short-term disability benefit entitlement.

When Payments End

Your Short-Term Disability payments end on the earlier of the following dates:

- the date you are no longer disabled.
- the end of the maximum benefit period allowable under Employment Insurance as indicated on their website.
- the date you retire with a pension.
- the date you die.
- the date you fail to furnish satisfactory proof of disability, or fail to submit to an examination required by the Insurer.
- the date you are no longer under continuing medical supervision and treatment considered appropriate by the Insurer.

Payments After Coverage Ends

If the Short-Term Disability coverage terminates while you are receiving Short-Term Disability benefits, you will continue to receive benefit payments in accordance with the terms of the group plan, as if the coverage were still in effect.

What is Not Covered

The Insurer will not pay benefits for any period:

- during which you are not receiving appropriate treatment.
- during which you do any work for wage or profit except as approved by the Insurer.

Maternity Leave

The Insurer will not pay benefits during a maternity and/or parental leave allowed by law or agreed to with your employer, unless legislation or regulation requires your employer to pay benefits during this period. (In some provinces, employers with a benefit plan are required to provide benefits to an employee during the health-related portion of the maternity leave.) Maternity leave is the period of time allowed under the applicable Provincial Labour Standards Act or such period as agreed to by the employee and employer, commencing on the date as agreed to by the employee and employer, or the date of delivery, whichever is earlier. The leave will end on the date you and your employer have agreed that you will return to active, full-time work or the actual date you return to active, full-time work, whichever is earlier.

When and How to Make a Claim

If you want to access your short-term disability benefit under the collective agreement, you must apply for EI sickness benefits on the Service Canada website no later than 30 days after your total disability begins. You must provide all required information to Service Canada for the purpose of your application and in order to maintain your EI sickness benefits, you may be required to provide proof of your total disability. As with any insurer, if you do not provide proof, you may lose your benefit entitlement.

Once you intend to make a claim, advise your employer so that they can make arrangements to start your short-term disability payments.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT 1
Job Sharing Arrangements

This will confirm that the above-noted Employer and the Union have agreed to enter into a protocol agreement addressing the issue of job sharing.

Where the Employer and the Union agree to enter into a job sharing agreement, the attached protocol agreement will be followed, unless modified at the local level between the Union and the Employer.

Nothing in this letter or the attached protocol agreement will be construed as compelling either the Employer, an employee, or the Union to enter into a job sharing arrangement.

The parties agree that the job sharing protocol agreement shall not be used as a precedent and shall not be referred to by the Employer or the Union in any other negotiations or proceedings.

JOB SHARING

1. A job sharing arrangement may be proposed to the Employer by two employees. This request shall be in writing and signed by both employees requesting job sharing. This request shall include preferred start date and preferred work schedule. There is no obligation on the Employer to enter a job sharing arrangement.

2. Where the Employer and the employees agree to a job sharing arrangement for a specific job, the following will apply:

(a) The Employer shall provide the two employees involved with a letter outlining the details of the job sharing arrangement. This shall include a description of how the job may be shared.

(b) Only permanent positions with an average of more than 30 hours per week are eligible to be considered for a job sharing arrangement.

(c) A maximum of two employees may share one position.

(d) Each employee shall work a minimum of 15 hours per week.

(e) Job sharing arrangements will be limited to regular employees who are currently employed in the same job classification.

(f) Vacations shall be scheduled separately. When one of the job sharing participants is on vacation, the other person may be required to work the hours of the employee who is on vacation.

(g) Employees participating in a job sharing arrangement shall be considered as regular part time employees, subject to (h) below.

(h) Employees involved in a job sharing arrangement shall pay 50% and the Employer shall pay 50% of the premiums covered by Article 25. The employee's share of the premiums will be automatically deducted from his/her earnings.

(i) Work schedules for job sharing participants shall be consistent with Article 14 and shall not be utilized to circumvent existing shift rotations.

(j) Employees shall not be permitted to jointly apply for a posting.

(k) The job sharing arrangement may be discontinued at any time by the Employer or the Union with the provision of 28 calendar days' notice.

- (l) Upon discontinuation of the job sharing arrangement, employees shall return to their former position if the position is vacant and the layoff and posting provisions shall not apply.
- (m) Where an employee cannot return to his/her former position, the employee may exercise bumping rights within five working days of notification by the Employer of discontinuation of the job sharing arrangement.
- (n) If one employee resigns or is terminated, the job sharing arrangement is considered terminated. If the remaining employee was the original employee in that position before the job sharing arrangement, he/she shall remain in the position. If the remaining employee was not the original employee in that position, the position shall be dealt with in accordance with Clause 12.1 and the employee may exercise his/her rights as outlined in Subsection (l) and (m) above.
- (o) The parties agree that job sharing shall not result in any additional cost to the Employer.
- (p) The parties retain all rights and obligations under the collective agreement which do not conflict with this provision.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT 2
Facilities Coordinator

The collective agreement applies to the Facilities Coordinator position except the following provisions:

1. Sleep Period Payment

One of the features of the Facilities Coordinator role is to ensure that there is staff coverage at all times in the Employer's 24/7 operation outside of usual business hours. As a result, the Facilities Coordinator currently provides coverage from 4:00 p.m. to 8:00 a.m. seven days per week, plus 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on weekends and statutory holidays.

Facilities Coordinators are currently expected to sleep for an eight hour period (scheduled from 11:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m.) during the 16 hour shift. The sleep period is compensated at a flat rate of $50 for the entire period, and this period is excluded from the accrual and payment of all benefits, including seniority. For clarity, all other scheduled hours of the Facilities Coordinator will be paid at the hourly rate found in the Wage Schedule, and will be used to calculate accruals and payment of benefits, including seniority.

Should emergencies require employees to be awakened during this sleep period and remain awake for one hour or more, then all the awake time will be paid at the straight-time hourly rate. Only hours worked before or after the scheduled start or end time of the shift, or on a day of rest will be eligible for overtime in accordance with Article 15 - Overtime.

2. Clause 14.3(f) – Scheduling Provisions - 12 hours off between shifts.
3. Clause 14.4 – Shift Differential and Weekend Premium.
4. Clause 15.7 – Rest Interval.

Signed on April 28th, 2016.

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT 3
Change to Benefit Plans

The parties confirm that the Employer may make changes to the extended health and dental plans with as much advance notice as possible to the Union for the purpose of communicating the changes to the bargaining unit. In particular, the parties discussed the following options:

- (a) Implement pharmacare tie-in for prescription drugs – employees approved for maintenance prescription drugs as of September 1st, 2016 but not approved by, or for which alternatives not available under, the pharmacare program, will continue to have the same coverage for those prescription drugs under the existing EHC plan; and
- (b) Implement a combined cap on Dental Plans A and B of $3750 per person per year.

Signed on April 28th, 2016.
