Re: Bargaining committee

I am pleased to announce that Usha Saroha has been nominated and acclaimed for the open position of bargaining committee member for South Hill Child Care. I want to thank Usha for stepping forward to represent you during this round of bargaining.

If you have not already had an opportunity to complete a bargaining survey please submit one directly to Usha or the area office as these provide the committee with important information on bargaining priorities.

In solidarity,

Nicki Pearson
Staff Representative
