

Bio - Saxon Wang

I have been working in many of f&b outlet during my past 10 years in river rock.

I have also seen how difficult it is if there is no one represents for your department.

Things that can be negotiated through bargaining include minimum hours required for shift, seniority, breaks, and benefits. please feel free to contact me if you have any other concerns. it would be hard to speak up for you if you don't let me know what you want.
