CPF NATIONAL CONCOURS D'ART ORATOIRE FINALS

SCHOLARSHIP DESCRIPTIONS

- The first-, second-, and third-place prizes are renewable, and all the prizes may be combined with uOttawa's Renewable Admission Scholarship (up to $4,000 annually) and French Studies Bursary ($1,000 annually.) The maximum potential total of the combined awards is $26,000 over 4 years.

Université de Saint-Boniface

- These scholarships are offered to winners of the Concours d'art oratoire in the above categories who enrol in a minimum of 18 credits at Université de Saint-Boniface. It is not possible to claim a prize if one transfers to Université de Saint-Boniface after a first or subsequent semester of post-secondary studies.
- Recipients of the national prizes must maintain a grade point average of 3.5 to renew the scholarship.
- The CPF scholarships may not be combined with Université de Saint-Boniface first-year entrance scholarships or with second-year scholarships solely based on grade point average. In all cases, students will receive the most advantageous of the scholarships for which they qualify.
- Winners of the Concours d'art oratoire who have not yet obtained their high school diploma can defer their scholarship until the month of September following graduation.
- Students must continue full time studies at the Université de Saint-Boniface in order to be eligible for the renewal of the CPF scholarship.
- These scholarships are awarded in the form of credits toward tuition fees.

Requirements

University of Ottawa

- Students must register for 6 credits (2 courses) taught in French in both semesters of the academic year. These can be French language courses (grammar, writing skills, etc.) or subject courses (like History, Business, Biology, etc.) that are taught in French.
- In the case of a first-, second-, or third-place prize, recipients must maintain a 7.0 Grade Point Average (equivalent to a B) to renew the scholarship.
- There is no 'cash value' to the prizes if the winner chooses to study elsewhere.

University of Moncton

- The Scholarships are for students who study at any of the three campuses of the University of Moncton. The student should be enrolled for a minimum of 12 credits per academic session.
- In the event that the winner can not use the scholarship because they have not yet received their secondary school diploma. The scholarship will be held until the following September when the student has received their diploma
- The scholarship will not be valid for students who are attending another institution and wish to attend one of the three campuses of the University of Moncton on a part-time basis.
