

International Human Rights Training Program

How to apply?

Applications for the International Human Rights Training Program (IH RTP) are submitted online through a platform called ContactEquitas.

In order to help you through your IH RTP application process, Equitas has prepared this guide to walk you through the 4 different steps.

Remember that once you have a ContactEquitas username and password, you can access or modify your application as often as you want until you submit it.

We highly encourage you to submit your application well ahead of the final deadline in order to ensure a timely processing.

About the Required Documents

Your application must include :

- The completed online application form
- The signed Memorandum of Agreement
- Two letters of recommendation
- A brochure describing your organization's work

Memorandum of Agreement

Where can I find Equitas' Memorandum of Agreement?

The Memorandum of Agreement is a document that needs to be signed by you and by the director of your organization. It can be found on the Equitas website, through this link:

https://equitas.org/wp-content/uploads/2022/10/2023_IH RTP_MemorandumOfAgreement.docx

Who must sign the Memorandum of Agreement if I do not work for an organization?

If you do not work for an organization, we require that you write a separate letter explaining how you plan to make use of your IH RTP training in an individual work plan.

Who must sign the Memorandum of Agreement if I am the Director of my organization?

If you are the Director of your organization, your Memorandum of Agreement must be signed by you and by the President of your organization's Board of Directors.

Letters of Recommendation

Who can write my letters of recommendation?

The two letters of recommendation that are required must be written by national or international human rights organizations familiar with your work and/or the work of your organization. Neither of these letters may be written by your own organization.

Brochure

What should the Brochure contain?

The brochure should describe the work of your organization. It can be the organization's mission statement or a selected excerpt from an annual report that gives information about your organization's mission, objectives, activities, etc.

Instead of a brochure, can I submit the link to the website of my organization?

No. Instead, please select relevant sections of your organization's website (mission, activities) and copy them in a Word document.
