

SPECIALIST

Physician of the Year

2023

Family Medicine
Calgary Zone

The 2023 Specialist Physician of the year is someone who has shown exemplary collaboration with Primary Care and is nominated by family physicians like you! Do you know someone who fits the below criteria?

Nominate them today!

- Exhibits exemplary collaboration skills with other physicians and health care services
- Shows leadership, innovation, excellence in continuous improvement of processes & systems
- Shares knowledge or information contributing to their collaborative successes with their colleagues
- Establishes effective and collaborative partnerships across multiple levels of health care with colleagues to benefit their patient(s)
- Demonstrates an integrated approach and has significantly improved the lives of medical staff and patients
- Builds consensus in decision-making
- Increases success of the partnership through the process of cooperative problem-solving

Click here to to nominate a specialist colleague today!

Nominations close June 1, 2023

