

01:04 CBC Radio One 88.3FM (CBQT)

Tuesday, February 28, 2023

Program

CBC Radio One 88.3F...

Tuesday, February 28, 2023

Program information for this station is not available for this date and time.

Is kept secret Ontario's plan to pay for certain services and for-profit clinics is a model BC has used for years and has made changes to Dr. David Urbik is head of surgery at women's college hospital in Toronto. He says most Canadians may not realize but hospitals are only funded to do a specific number of surgeries per year governments could pay to schedule added surgeries on evenings or weekends but the real issue is staffing. We need people particularly nursing care the Angus Reid Institute survey shows political leanings tend to drive people's views on privatization Christine Burak CBC news, Toronto and that is your World this hour for CBC news Neil her land. Thank you for listening. Hi. I'm jeff goods. You're listening to CBC radio one now from the public radio exchange we bring you the World a news magazine program featuring stories and music from around the globe.

Tragedy in the Mediterranean as a vote of refugees breaks of hard some say European rules and made such disasters more likely the incident this weekend which some 100 migrants drowned off the coast of Italy is just the latest it's a particularly terrible example of a story york's BC now full blast, 7 or 8 years. Also today, the story of the war in Ukraine. Sounds pretty different when Beijing is explaining it to its citizens join us officials are saying that the country pouring weapons into the war for the profit is literacy obviously is America I marco women and some classic stories by British author Roald Dahl for are getting an update it's just being kind of the reason is because Let's keep this in perspective weakening or comes to

This service is provided by TVEyes. All content is copyrighted by its respective owners.