

EXPERIENCE THE EAST COAST OUR WAY

WELCOME TO EASTERN ZONE

What makes Nova Scotia "New Scotland" to those who call it home? In Eastern Zone, experience the Gaelic, Indigenous and Acadian cultures of Guysborough County and Cape Breton Island, whose Highlands gave our province its Scottish namesake. With breathtaking views everywhere you look, it's no wonder the locals are always hosting kitchen parties to celebrate. Enjoy some of the world's best golf courses, hiking and cycling trails, swimming, and more. For a list of everything to do and see in this beautiful part of the province, visit

WORK & PLAY

YOUR NEW OFFICE

Eastern Zone houses two regional hospitals. Cape Breton Regional Hospital in Sydney is the second largest acute care facility in Nova Scotia. In Antigonish, St. Martha's Regional Hospital (founded in 1906 by the Sisters of St. Martha's congregation) provides a wide range of health care services. There are also many other fantastic community hospitals serving unique landscapes across the region.

THE CABOT TRAIL

Consistently featured on "must-do" lists for Nova Scotia travel, the Cabot Trail is world-renowned for its winding roads with scenic views. Enjoy this 300 km experience by car, motorcycle, or bicycle.

LET'S HAVE A CÉILIDH

Gaelic language and culture brought by the province's first settlers is still a part of daily living in this area. Music, dance, local history and storytelling are deeply woven into the community. The classic "kitchen party", also known as a "céilidh" (pronounced "kay-lee") is the best way to experience it all in one evening.

EXPERIENCE THE HISTORY

Check out the Fortress of Louisbourg, Canso Islands, Antigonish Highland Games, and more historical attractions available across the zone.
